

MCT Faith Discussion Group

As ever, our discussions last session ranged widely while discussing early heresies and how best to live out our faith in every day life. The language of the Lord's Prayer came up and it was suggested to invite members of the MCT congregations to choose their favourite English translation over the summer.

Your Favourite Version of the Lord's Prayer

We probably recite the Lord's Prayer at some point in every church service - but usually in the version in the King James Bible, despite the fact that many different English versions are available, not to mention versions in Scots. Might another version be more appropriate for people in 2021? To help, you could start looking through the Bible Hub, <https://biblehub.com>, which offers nearly 40 different English translations of the Bible, though it is not a complete list. Let us know which is your favourite.

Your Version of the Lord's Prayer

Perhaps you feel that you can find no version that satisfies you for the 21st century. So, we challenge you to write your own version to express what you think Jesus exemplary prayer might have said today. This is an opportunity to be really creative.

The Group will examine the results at its first meeting in the autumn. So, please send your choice to David or Jim by Sunday 26th September using the contact information below.
